

REPÚBLICA DOMINICANA

CREATED BY CLARA, BEA AND GABRIELA.

A photograph of a sandy beach with a starfish in the foreground. The starfish is light brown and textured, resting on the sand. In the background, there are waves crashing onto the shore, creating white foam. The sky is a pale blue.

Index

- 1) Location
- 2) Important rivers and mountains
- 3) Typical food and drinks
- 4) Festivals
- 5) Typical dances and songs
- 6) Typical costumes
- 7) Legends
- 8) Flights

Location

- The Dominican Republic is located in American continent , on an island.
- It limits to the north with the Atlantic Ocean, to the south with the Caribbean Sea, to the east with the Mona Channel that separates it from Puerto Rico and to the west with Haiti.

Important rivers and mountains

The most important rivers and mountains
in the Dominican Republic are :

- The Dabadón river
- The Soco river
- The Camú river
- The Chavón river
- Pico Duarte mountain
- Loma del Gallo mountain
- The round mountain

Typical food and drinks

Tostones

Mofongo

Mamajuana

Dominican rice

Fried fish

Morir soñando

Festivals

- Dominican carnival
- Independence Day of the Dominican Republic
- San Juan festivities
- Merengue Festival
- Jazz Festival
- Day of restoration

Typical dances and songs

-Bachata: Musical rhythm of percussion and strings

-Merengue: Comes from the caribbean.

-Dembow: Derived from reggaeton and dancehall.

Typical costumes

The typical costumes of the Dominican Republic, for both men and women, is white and has red and blue details that are the representative colors of the national flag.

Legends

1) La Chupacabra: known as “the evil bug” that sucks the blood of livestock, particularly goats and sheep.

2) La Bacà: This demonic creature that is said to change shape is conjured when a person makes a pact with the devil to obtain wealth, or any other desire, in exchange for his soul.

Flights

- Flight one: By plane

Madrid ● ● Dominican Republic Airport
1.400 eur

- Flight two: By car and ship

Madrid ● ● La Altagracia