

THE BOULDER HOUSE (CASA DO PENEDO)

MADE BY: JAIRO TEJADA, ROCÍO BÉJAR, LADY ABIGAIL AND JESÚS MARTÍN

- ▶ Its original name is Casa do Penedo, that means “Stone house”. It is considered the most unusual house of the world. It was built to be discreet. It is in the north of Portugal, next to a village called Fafe. It was built between 1974 and 1976.

- ▶ Everything but the doors, the windows and the ceiling is made by stone. The furniture and the stairs are made of wood. The sofa is made by concrete and wood and its weight is 350kg. It was devised by Vitor Domingues, who was inspired while walking in a mountain range.

- ▶ It hasn't got any telephone, TV or electricity, but it has got water and gas.
- ▶ It is curious for the tourist because of its beauty and originality.

WE HOPE YOU LIKED IT!
